

Harlow Programme has a Facebook group – please join! Links to other training courses will be posted there and you can post details and reminders about courses happening in your church, or anything you think others might find useful.

Harlow Deanery Programme

Training opportunities for all

Spiritual Companionship and the Scriptures

What - Ann Coleman (the chair of spiritual direction coordinators group) is running this course. Highly recommended by local clergy

When and where – weekly from Tuesday 15th January - Tuesday 19th February 2019, 6pm-8pm.
Chelmsford Diocesan Office. Cost £30 for whole Module (includes all resources)

For more information or to book a place please contact Ann Coleman at annvcol@gmail.com or on 01277 821366

Children and Youth Deanery Hub and Round Table – Resources and Funding

What – meet with Emma Anderton, Barking Children and Families Missioner. With Essex Council for Voluntary Youth Services

When and where – 23rd January 10am, Costa Coffee, Epping, CM16 4BL

Being Good News in Schools 2019

What - A day conference exploring how we can bridge the gap between church and school with opportunities to hear from headteachers, youth workers, primary schools' workers, clergy, young people and others.

When and where – Sat 2nd February, 10am – 4pm. The Bean Academic Centre, Brentwood School CM15 8EE School. £12 early bird (book before 20th Dec). £15 after. All tickets include a sandwich lunch.

More info – Mark Tiddy - mtiddy@chelmsford.anglican.org

Sharing Faith in Schools

What- a new initiative with a mission to train and support those involved in Christian schools work across England for FREE. The pilot national project is designed to offer you bespoke training, 1-2-1 mentoring, and the opportunity for practical experience in your field of interest to support you in realising your vision for your own dynamic work to reach the 95% [of children and YP who are not in church]. In partnership with the Scripture Union.

When – starting in January. FREE. More details: <https://www.faithinschools.co.uk/sharing-fis>

Westminster Theological Centre course – 'Spiritually Formed'

What - a study of biblical pathways to spiritual formation- becoming like Jesus. The goal of the course is to provide biblical and theological foundations to sustain you as you go deeper in your walk with God. Open to all

When and where – six weeks from 16th January 7.45pm – 9.45pm, the Annexe at All Saints Woodford Wells. Cost £10

More info and booking - Les Crossland at lesliedcrossland@gmail.com , or 07816 263873.

Course in Spiritual Direction

This ecumenical course, open to lay & ordained Christians of all traditions, is an opportunity to grow in spirituality and personal development and has the aim of developing Christian souls to the point where they can act as Spiritual Directors and help others discern where the Holy Spirit is leading them. Facilitated by a core group of six who are advised by the Revd Canon Philip Banks and the Revd Ann Coleman. Lots more info on www.chelmsford.anglican.org and www.cisd-essex.net

When and where – 18 months from September 2019 at Pleshey – application by 15th March

More info and application form - valmrst@hotmail.com

Holding On - is a five-part course that accompanies the Chelmsford Holding Cross. The course materials have been designed as a download so that they can be used to run the course locally. It provides a way to explore what the crosses stand for and what it means to follow a rule of life that keeps us close to God and to one another. Find it on <http://www.transformingpresence.org.uk/resources-and-downloads>